MONKS Eleigh landlord Peter Mayes, above right, has scooped the top award in the Greene King in Bloom competition for the second year running.

Judges voted The Bull Inn best floral pub in the contest, open to all 600 Greene King tenancies. Peter won a colour television, video recorder, and certificate while the top eight area winners, including Mac and Anne Wixley from the King's Arms at Haughley, left, also received colour televisions and certificates.

Estates director Jonathan Clarke and Grant Clewes-Garner from sponsors Britvic, presented the awards.
